TANK-POWERED U. N. TROOPS CRACK STIFFENING COMMUNIST RESISTANCE; POUND OUT FRESH KOREAN GAINS

Drive Up Four Main Routes Toward North Korea Beyond Captured Seoul, Hongchon and Yudong — Shoot Vandards Within 15 Miles of 38th Parallel.

By International News Service

TOKYO, Mar. 16.—(INS)—Tank-powered United Nations troops cracked stiffening Communist resistance today and pounded out fresh gains in a drive-up four main routes toward North Korea beyond captured Seoul, Hongchon and Yudong. Shooting vanguards within 15 miles of Parallel 38, the UN divisions resumed their advance after heavy Thursday night, again dwindled to "light contact" before noon Friday. This was reported in a Friday night field dispatch from NS war correspondent Robert Schakne.

By Lee Ferrery (I. N. S. War Correspondent)

TOKYO, Mar. 16.—(INS)—United Nations columns, driving up four routes toward North Korea, hammered out fresh gains today against fiercely resisting Red troops who suddenly stopped retreating and turned to fight.

Reassured by President Truman's statement that the 38th Parallel is not an issue in the UN's job of freezing Korea, the northward advancing UN forces shot vanguards within 15 miles of that artificial border.

They were aided by the war's biggest air attacks as South Korea continued on Page Four

Following a question and answer period, Mr. Harris again thanked those responsible for their invitation and concluded: "I reserved this statement until last purpose—every penny you subscribe to the hospital is going to the hospital. We are fortunate indeed to have a friendly benefactor in Philadelphia who will defray the expense of professional solicitors in their assistance to us in our endeavor."

A TREVOSE INCIDENT

A Bristol township man is under $500 bail for the next term of Bucks County Court, charged with alleged display of indecent and obscene literature.

William P. Kovitch, Croydon R. D. 2, was given a hearing before Justice of the Peace M. M. Lawrence, Bristol township, after his arrest by state police from Langhorne barracks.

Kovitch is charged with displaying the literature on March 10th and 12th in the vicinity of Trevoise, where he is said to have been removing the license plate from his vehicle.

It is claimed that Kovitch summoned two girls, approximately 12 years of age, to his vehicle, and at that time showed them the picture.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Frank Costello, pleading physical and mental inability to continue, walked out of the Senate crime inquiry in this city yesterday and faced arrest for contempt. Among the day's other witnesses was former Deputy Police Commissioner Bals, a friend of former Mayor O'Dwyer. He cast doubt on the belief that Abe Reles, a witness in the 1941 "Murder, Inc." case had committed suicide.

The role of Dr. Klaus Fuchs, jailed British atomic scientist, in the Soviet espionage network was described by Harry Gold, confessed spy. At the atomic spy trial he also involved a missing Soviet vice-consul in New York in the ring. William Perl, Columbia University instructor, indicted for perjury in denying to the grand jury that he knew the spy-case defendants, pleaded not guilty and was held in $20,000 bail. Supreme Court Justice Black, after denouncing attempts to influence the courts by "such pressures" as mass telegrams, temporarily stayed the execution of Willie McGee, Negro convict accused of rape in Mississippi.

Members of the Senate subcommittee investigating political influence in the R. F. C. engaged in a controversy over the course of the inquiry. President Truman defended the conduct of his appointees. He

Small Group Views Steel Production Film

LANGHORNE, Mar. 16.—The smallest meeting of Neshaminy Parent-Teachers Association in three years—with barely two dozen members present—saw a preview, in color, of the type of operation that will take place in the new Fairless Works of the United States Steel Co. plant now under construction in Falls township. The meeting took place in the high school on Tuesday evening.

Walter Weir, president, apologized to Messrs. Macfarlane, O'Keefe and Tice of U. S. Steel, who had come from New York, N. Y., to show the film for poor attendance. Mr. Weir, commenting on the fact that the P.T.A. had arranged for no advance notices in newspapers concerning the program, thus pointed out the importance of newspaper publicity.

The film traced the manufacture of steel, from the mixing of the ore to the rolling and pressing of the finished product. It gave those present a grasp of the immensity of the undertaking and the many moments of rare, pyrotechnic beauty in the making of steel. Ample demonstrated was the vital role steel plays in modern society.

Mr. Vandevanter announced the slate of officers selected by the nominating committee for the 1951-52 term. Proposed were John Mladjen for president; Harry Ticehurst for vice president; Walter Rothenback, 2nd vice president, a newly created post; Mrs. Ann Garber for secretary and Donald Huntsberger for treasurer. Elections will take place at the April meeting.

Because of the impact of the film, it has also been scheduled for showing at coming meetings of both the Newtown and Pennell P.T.A.'s, and a number of requests have been received that it be given another showing at a future meeting of Neshaminy P.T.A.

FORCE SAFE DOOR IN HOTEL; GET $367

Burglar Believed To Have Hidden Until After Bar Closed

BROKE KITCHEN DOOR

The door of a light steel safe was pried partly open in the Keystone Hotel, Mill and Bath streets, sometime during the night and approximately $367 in cash was taken, it is reported by the proprietor.

It is believed that the burglar concealed himself in the hotel, until after the bar was closed. Then the door between the dining room and the kitchen was smashed and some sort of a heavy instrument, probably a crowbar, was used in an effort to break open the safe.

The safe door did not yield but was sprung enough to permit the burglar to reach in and get the money.

NOT MORE DIRT --- JUST A BETTER BROOM

In trying to analyze the outburst of scandals high in Administrative life in Washington, which have kept the country gasping all winter, there are certain points to be remembered.

One of these is that bribery and corruption, the bartering of favors and the selling of influence, have been part and parcel of the New Deal ever since it came into power. They may be worse now, after eighteen years of license, than they were back in the Thirties, when the New Deal still counted more "idealists" than five-percenters. But they are nothing new.

Crooked administration of public affairs has been inevitable from the day the New Deal was born. You can't marry political gangsters from the corrupt machines with starry-eyed idealists from college campus, and get honest, practical common-sense government. You can't sell political favors to special groups like the labor bosses, and not have individuals in the government start selling favors too. You can't set up a philosophy of government that is fraudulent at its foundations—and then expect the employees of that government to be honest enough to turn down easy money whenever it appears.

The Roosevelt family set the pace for the Federal payroll when they took advantage of easy money and influence all up and down the line. President Truman held to the same tune when he defended the crooked political machine he came from, when he has stood again and again between dishonest public servants and an aroused citizenry, and when he let his friends blackjack through Congress a special-favor tax-free expense allowance that has made him one of the wealthiest men (measured by tax-paid income) in this tax-burdened nation.

No, the difference isn't so much in the number and viciousness of the scandals this year, as it is that the Trumanites are losing their grip. They aren't able to clamp the lid down like they used to.

For instance—the forces which were able to white-

THROWN FROM WHEEL; HAS A CONCUSSION

David Bowker, 11, of Newportville, is Removed to Hospital

BAG IS ENTANGLED

NEWPORTVILLE, Mar. 16.—Thrown from a bicycle when a newspaper carrying bag was said to have become caught in the spokes, David Bowker, 11, was injured yesterday afternoon.

The lad was taking a bag of papers to his brother for the latter to distribute, it is stated, when he was hurt on Cedar avenue. Mrs. Stanley Cieselski, who went to his aid, found David unconscious.

The boy was taken to Nazareth hospital, Phila., by Bucks Co. Rescue Squad. X-rays were taken, it being determined that he has a concussion. David will remain in the hospital for 48 hours under observation.

It was not until the boy regained consciousness that his family was able to determine how he came by his injuries. The fact that the bicycle was not damaged, however, led those who went to his aid to believe he had not been struck by a car.

Offers "Brink Information" as Freedom Exchange

Boston—Boston and New York officials conferred today on an offer made by a long-term inmate of Auburn State Prison, who said that in exchange for his freedom he would give information to solve the million-dollar Brink's robbery. Boston detectives said there was little chance the offer would be accepted because the informant refused to give any details of what he claims to know until he is free and returned to his home in Montreal. The offer was brought to Boston by Emile Johannsen, investigator on the staff of New York District Attorney Frank S. Hogan. Johannsen said the convict, now serving 18 years for a New York jewelry robbery, told him: "If I can get out of this, I think I have the information that will break the Brink case wide open."

STATE PRESIDENT ADDRESSES LEGION AUXILIARY UNITS

Norman Johns, 9th District Commander, Discusses Legion Problems

By Staff Reporter

LANGHORNE, Mar. 16.—A brief, but encompassing picture of the humanitarian work carried out by the American Legion and Auxiliary in Pennsylvania, was presented here yesterday by the Penna. Department president of American Legion Auxiliaries, Mrs. Howard McKay, of Springfield, Mrs. McKay appeared in the Jesse W. Soby post country club home, where the Auxiliary of that post served as host to Montgomery-Bucks Council of Auxiliaries.

The president's projects, the gift-giving for hospitalized service folk at the holiday season; providing of surgical work and clothing for needy children of ill servicemen; purchase of equipment for veterans' hospitals; legislation of interest to "vets"; and membership were touched on by Mrs. McKay. Introduced by Mrs. James Tracy, Hulmeville, president of the Council, Mrs. McKay, in considering membership, harked on the national president's slogan "Dig Deep" in order that names of those on old rosters might again appear on the active list.

Congratulating the local unit on its 31st anniversary, and the Soby post on its 32nd, the state president reminded that "the important, and one of the largest programs, of the Legion and Auxiliary is the Christmas box project. This work we do hand-in-hand with the Legion. The men carry out the mechanics of the work, and we share the costs." She informed that every hospitalized veteran in the state, as well as 450 at Perry Point hospital, were remembered with gifts from the two groups last Yuletide. "Nearly $4,000 more was collected than ever before by the American Legion Auxiliary for the project," she told.

Some case records touched on by Mrs. McKay, included operations for children; purchase of clothing, etc., through active interest of the Legionnaires and members of the women's units. The funds needed

FRIDAY, MARCH 16, 1951
NO DOVE OF PEACE

Trying to reach agreement with Russia, even on the simplest matters, is the most trying and frustrating experience Western diplomats let themselves in for. The meeting of the Big Four deputies in Paris is the same old story.

The meeting was arranged for one purpose—to agree on the topics to be discussed at a forthcoming conference of foreign ministers and the U. S. Secretary of State, and on the order in which they are to be taken up. Russia's Gromyko promptly launched into a long stereotyped denunciation of the United States, Britain and France.

Gromyko accused the three powers, and particularly the United States, of violating the Potsdam agreement of 1945, which divided Germany and Berlin into four zones of occupation. In that agreement all four powers agreed, for their respective zones and for Germany as a whole, to the democratization of schools and courts, to free elections on representative principles, to freedom of speech and assembly.

The Western powers have violated none of the foregoing provisions. Russia has flagrantly violated all of them, and many others.

Gromyko charged the Western powers with endangering world peace and preparing a new world war at a time when communists armed by Russia are killing Americans in Korea in order to perpetuate similar Russian violations in that area. Meanwhile Russia is waging a new "peace offensive" throughout the world which consists mainly of inflammatory speeches designed to arouse warlike fury against the United States.

In the face of such behavior, representatives of the three Western powers have tried to stick to the subject and get Gromyko to do likewise. But there has been no indication that a dove of peace may be nesting on the cornices of the Pink Palace where the deputies are meeting.

EXCISE TAX REPEAL

Among the scores of taxes which must be paid by the American people—largely because of their past political sins—none is more irritating than excise levies. There has been a continual clamor for repeal on the grounds they are discriminatory and unfair to certain manufacturers. Repeal was given serious consideration by the last Congress, and for a time it appeared the administration would respond to the appeals and do away with the hated taxes.

A national organization composed of representatives of 55 firms has again taken up the fight, and has appealed to Congress to repeal all excise taxes. They propose instead, a general sales tax, which they contend would be more equitable and would bring in more revenue. There isn't a chance that excise taxes will be repealed, or lowered. They probably will be increased. And when a federal sales tax is adopted, it will be in addition to all other taxes.

Bank-Powered U. N. Troops Crack "Red" Resistance

President Syngman Rhee told Gen. Douglas MacArthur his government will ask the U.N.'s permission for the bombing of China—the source of Chinese reinforcements.

Korea's centuries-old capital of Seoul, redeemed Thursday by the U.N. forces for a second time, was feared of Red stragglers. But South Korean troops ran into sharp re when they stabbed northwest from the capital on the main road leading to the 38th Parallel hub of Seoul.

Gen. MacArthur, replying to the letter advising him that a formal request would be made at the success for authority to bomb the Chinese "sanctuary," cautioned that the Red invaders have suffered no decisive defeat.

The U.N. supreme commander pointed out that the Communistarrison of Seoul, unlike last September when the city was first liberated, "has withdrawn in good order."

MacArthur's words were borne out by battlefield developments. The Reds were offering hardened resistance, particularly in the central and east central sectors, indicating they may have set up a new defense line roughly 15 to 20 miles below Parallel 38.

Dedicate Many Items At Church Service Here

At the close of worship service Sunday morning in Harriman Methodist Church a dedication was conducted by Dr. Charles Kito, superintendent of North District, Philadelphia Methodist Conference.

A new chancel, including a pulpit, lectern, altar, cross, candlesticks and offering plates were the items dedicated.

The altar was dedicated to the memory of a former Sunday School scholar, Hope Kwochka. It was presented by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Kwochka, and Genevieve, Vera and Elaine Kwochka.

The pulpit, pulpit scarf, Bible and hymnal, were dedicated in memory of the late Rev. George Moulton, pastor from 1927-29, presented by his wife and daughter, Mrs. George Wright, both of Philadelphia.

The lectern, which included a Bible and Bible markers, was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hunter, in appreciation of the pastors who have served Harriman Church. Candlesticks were dedicated in memory of the Rev. George Shice, pastor from 1932 to 1939, given by his daughter, Ruth, Philadelphia, and friends in Harriman Church.

The cross was presented by Mr. and Mrs. Harry Risser. Offering plates were given by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rogers and C. W. Berglund, Bristol.

At this service, some shrubbery was dedicated in memory of Mrs. Elizabeth Illingworth and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Illingworth and family, given by Mrs. Anna Dougherty.

The carpet dedicated had been in the church for some time. It was presented by the Young Adult Fellowship. The automatic oil burning furnace, which was dedicated, was a gift from Hendricks Brothers and Mr. and Mrs. Hans Madsen, Bristol.

The following were received into membership on Sunday: By confession of faith—Mr. and Mrs. Edward Acosta, Schumacher Drive; Robert Elker, Bath road; Mrs. Anthony Cashmere, Radcliffe street; Mrs. Thomas Wilkinson, Bristol; transferred from other churches: Mrs. Robert Elker, Bath road, from Bristol Methodist; Mrs. Bert Hinson, Bath road, from Port Arthur, Tex.; Edward Wilkinson, Bristol, from Tacony Methodist.

COMMITTED TO JAIL

FALLSINGTON, Mar. 16—Robert Martin, Morrisville, pleaded guilty to a complaint signed by his wife, Dorothy Martin, for non-support of his wife and two children, Helen, aged two years, and son, Robert, aged six months. He was arrested by Chief John Davis, of Morrisville police force, on a warrant issued by John Melvin, justice of the peace. Martin was committed to the Doylestown Jail in default of $500 bail until next term of court.

was the colossal scandal of Pearl Harbor and then divert public attention from the mystery of who ordered the destruction of some thirty-five billion dollars worth of the finest war equipment ever assembled, at the end of World War II—the forces which could accomplish those miracles in the past have slipped and slid to the point where they can't even hide a pastel mink coat on the shoulders of a White House stenographer.

For years, the dirt got swept under the rug. Today there isn't appreciably more dirt, and the rug is as big as ever. But somehow the dirt stays out in plain sight.

How come? Why is it that the searchlight keeps right on playing into the dark corners, and the window blinds keep on getting raised? How does it happen that back in 1947 and 48, when the Republican 80th Congress was in command, scandals of this sort couldn't be made to "stick," even though some of them were actually even more odorous than those holding attention today—and yet now, with the Democrats back in the saddle, scandals break forth unchecked on every hand?

The answer is not too difficult to find. It lies in the nature of the Congressional reorganization which went on last January. As a result of the set-backs which the Truman wing of the Democratic party suffered last year, the balance of power fell into the hands of a group which dominated the Democratic organization for many generations, but which was dealt out some years ago by the labor-boss and big-city machine coalition—the Jeffersonian Democrats.

As this column put it at that time, the Southern Democrats were "back in the saddle again." The Dixiecrats, although they had lost out in the 1948 elections, nevertheless had picked up the reins of power in Congress.

The difference this makes is almost beyond calculation. These Dixiecrats are in the Truman doghouse anyhow—they have nothing to lose through his getting angry at them. The White House can't outbluff them, and it can't control them. The days when the White House lobby had the finger on every committee chairman, and could muster a majority in any of them on short notice, and controlled such key figures as committee attorneys—those days are gone.

Formerly the investigations ran into a stacked deck. They could be cut down, minimized, ridiculed, outbluffed. If probes and witnesses alike are under your thumb, it is easy to be exonerated.

But all this machinery has been lost to the White House. The President can rave, he can deny—but the investigations go right on. If witnesses start getting slippery with their testimony, if they try to go back to the Pearl Harbor pattern and try to withdraw damaging statements, some hard-hearted soul mentions the topic of perjury.

The Dixiecrats number among their ranks some of the veterans of Congress—men who have seen all the tricks and know all the answers; men who were old-timers twenty years ago when Charley Michaelson was perfecting his smear technique and cutting the Republican Party to ribbons. There is, in fact, more than a touch of the Michaelson strategy in some of the present investigations—but this time turned against the very faction in the Democratic party which most profited by Michaelson's unholy skills, the New Dealers.

School League Group Enjoys Pupil Program

TULLYTOWN, Mar. 16—Prior to the business meeting of the Home and School League held Tuesday evening, in the school, a St. Patrick's day program was presented by pupils of the school, directed by Mrs. George Colville, 5th and 6th grade teacher. The following program was given: accordion solo, Douglas Kaiser; tap dance, Linda Hart; guitar selection, Ronald and Violet Grady; tap dance, Sharon Rosser and Barbara Forestal; piano solo, Alice Keeler; duet, Linda Hart and Bonnie Rosser, accompanied on the ukelele by "Betty" Chase; tap dance, Judith Heidrick; piano solo, Joanne Conca; accordion solo, John Cattani. The children were served ice cream and cake by the refreshment committee.

Mrs. Ralph Hart, treasurer, presided over the first part of the session, which is attended. Election of a second vice-president followed the salute to the flag and Lord's prayer, Mrs. Forestal being chosen. She presided over the balance of the meeting.

Mrs. Nicholas Eberle gave the secretary's report with Mrs. Hart reporting for the treasury balance. A committee was selected for the mother's day program in May, namely Mrs. William Swangler and Mrs. Helen Nichols. Mrs. E. Forestal was named chairman for the card party to be held in the fire company station April 7th at 8:30 p. m.

A report was given concerning the Easter egg hunt March 22nd at 10 a. m. at the school. Prizes will be awarded to at least one pupil from each of the six grades. The eggs will be wrapped and numbered and each child is to take back to the school one egg and if it shows the lucky number that pupil will be awarded a prize. Prizes will also be given for the most original Easter basket made by the children and each child in the school will receive a small Easter basket containing Easter candy. Mrs. H. Kuhn is chairman of the hunt.

The "blind pig" was won by Mrs. Augustus Gross. Miss Elsie Ettenger's third and fourth grade room was awarded the attendance banner. The "exchange basket" during the past month realized $2.

Mrs. Alfred Leedom was appointed to secure information concerning gifts to be given each member of this year's graduating class and present information at the next meeting.

A barn dance is planned, however no definite date was set.

Mrs. H. Kuhn and Mrs. Edward Kaiser will act as refreshment committee for April.

Coffee and cake were served by Mrs. Nicholas Eberle, Mrs. Augustus Gross and Mrs. Earl Johnson.

Invited to Meeting: Finds It Is "Shower"

Mrs. George McCay, Newportville, thinking she was attending a special local lodge committee meeting on Monday evening, arrived at the home of Mrs. Wilbur Albright, Walnut street, and found she was the guest of honor at a shower.

The affair was arranged by Mrs. Albright and Mrs. Randall Yeagle. A miniature white bassinet trimmed with blue was placed on a coffee table. A doll resting inside held streamers of pink and blue, which reached out to the gifts.

Refreshments were served at tables decorated in pink and blue. At each place "three-cornered pants" held Easter eggs, suspended on a miniature clothes line. On the line was fastened name cards. A cake topped with a stork was also part of the decorations. Guests included: Mrs. Roy Pettis.

for the state president's projects were mentioned; and information given on creation of a nursery at Deshon hospital, Butler, so that children might be cared for while the mothers visit their husbands, children under 15 being forbidden as visitors. Another project was the installation of an organ at a cost of over $1,000 in Coatesville Veterans hospital chapel; and other plans call for erection of a patio at that hospital. The speaker informed that Penna. won a special bonus by virtue of acquiring greatest percentage of members during February. Mrs. McKay told that over $6,000 had been given the national organization to help the Legion in legislative claims in Washington, D. C. Poppy sales were also stressed, the men in hospitals, who make such being the beneficiaries.

The meeting followed an executive session, which took place at the conclusion of a turkey luncheon. With a Killarney castle entwined with ivy, as the central theme at the guests' table, potted plants and green decorations carried out the St. Patrick motif.

The Rev. Roger Hillis, Parkland, who asked the blessing, also congratulated the auxiliaries "on the things you do." Welcome was extended on behalf of the local auxiliary by its president, Mrs. Gilbert Bonnell. The latter told the group of 125 gathered that Langhorne unit has had the same treasurer, Mrs. Robert Leedom, for 21 years. Also extending a welcome to the visitors was Commander George Stock, of Soby post. Accordion music was provided during the luncheon by Miss Elizabeth A. Sodano, of Penn-del.

A brief address was given by Norman Johns, of Bryn Mawr, commander of the 9th district of the Legion. Various problems and activities of the Legion were touched on, namely rehabilitation work, the sending of toys abroad, and attempts to secure proper benefits for "vets," etc. He stated that progress is being made toward better understanding between Legionnaires and officials in the nation's capital. He decried the lack of an insurance bill for veterans, and expressed hope for passage of such a suitable measure. He reminded that the Legion is not in opposition to the Hoover economy report, but only to four of its 18 points, these particularly affecting veterans. He urged the Auxiliary "to keep on the ball, and aid the Legion in this battle for veterans' rights."

"We have a job on our hands to hold out against any economy that would harm the veterans."

A number of guests were introduced, some speaking briefly. Mrs. John Owens, Philadelphia, department chairman of civilian defense, reminded that such activity is the "infant program of the American Legion Auxiliary," such work being inaugurated in December. "We are asked to pledge ourselves to take courses in first aid, nurses aid, canteen, and evacuation work, etc., which services might be needed."

She urged the women to enter into community activities along such lines, and to report hours of service to their unit presidents. Mrs. Harlan Everitt, Elkins Park, vice chairman of national security, advocated the backing of the universal military training bill. A past department president, Mrs. Harrison Smith, Philadelphia, former chairman of Women's National Defense Committee of that city, urged support of a House joint resolution to have American "relics" replaced in the House of Representatives, she stating these had been taken out in favor of pictures and relics of individuals from other nations. Mrs. C. Winfield Ott, Philadelphia, eastern vice-president, told of plans for a dinner honoring the national and department Auxiliary presidents, this being arranged by the Eastern Section.

Another speaker was Mrs. H. Wallace Jordan, of Chester, community service chairman. This is community service month. She reminded of a portion of the auxiliary preamble: "To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation," then urged the women to serve their fellow-men by aiding in the heart, cancer, and other worth-while drives. Speaking of foes of this nation she said: "I'm not nearly so afraid of an atomic bomb as I am of the communistic element working in our midst." Mrs. Harriet Reeves, of Willow Grove, membership chairman, displayed membership citations for units at East Greenville, Quakertown, Sellersville and Glenside.

Some reports of chairmen were read by the secretary, Mrs. Robert Davis, of West Oak Lane. These included reports of Mrs. Ruth B. Whitman, Narberth, Americanism chairman, and Mrs. Walter Gaines, Willow Grove, legislative sub-chairman. Other reports were as follows: Mrs. William Campbell, Newtown, sub-chairman of coupons; Mrs. Frank Ball, Willow Grove, sub-chairman of rehabilitation, who presented check for $100 for the department president's project; Mrs. Edward Dougherty, Phila., treasurer; Mrs. James Tracy, civilian defense; Mrs. Crouthamel, Souderton, education of war orphans; Mrs. Alton Dettmer, Bristol, juniors (she displaying favors, nut cups, place cards, etc., made by juniors); Mrs. Mountford, Morrisville, membership, who informed that the auxiliaries have 87 per cent of quota at present; Mrs. Mary Betz, Pottstown, poppies; Mrs. Robert Rue, Bristol, press publication; Mrs. Rae Brodbeck, Willow Grove, president of past presidents' parley.

Mrs. Ball urged unit contributions for candy for the veterans hospitals; and at her suggestion plans were made to hold a picnic next summer at Valley Forge park for men from Coatesville hospital and some from Norristown state hospital. The council voted to donate $50 toward candy fund for Coatesville hospital.

The April meeting will be in Bristol Methodist Church.

There were displayed afghans composed of squares of woolen material, these being made by Mrs. Edward Davis, of Hulmeville. These will be sent to Valley Forge hospital.

Predicts Tires Will Be Available in Case of War

L. V. Cooper, Firestone Tire and Rubber Company executive, predicted that the general public will be able to secure tires in the event of a third world war when he addressed Rotarians at the Elks' Home yesterday afternoon.

Cooper based this statement on the great advancements made by the rubber industry in development of the synthetic tire making processes, and he declared that by July 1st full production will have been achieved in the country in the synthetic rubber plants.

A cross section of a new tubeless tire which is puncture proof and blowout proof was shown to members. The speaker also outlined the development of the rayon cord tire by Firestone, pointing out that today it is a finished product, does not use any natural rubber, and will be a great boon in the event of an emergency.

"When you look forward today things do look black, but then when you look back and then look forward once more the picture brightens, and with genuine prayers in our hearts and souls we can put down the dictators and look forward to better things," Cooper concluded.

Guests were present for the meeting from Hulmeville, Bristol and Philadelphia, with president Raymond Sobatzki in charge.

SPORTSMEN'S BRIEFS

By JOE ELBERSON

Protect your rights . . . House Bill No. 306, now in the hands of the House Law and Order Committee in Harrisburg, should be defeated and every sportsman in the Commonwealth should protest its passage. It is the bill, to all appearances, that has been advocated for some time by Philadelphia Public Safety Director Rosenberg.

It provides for registration of all firearms in Pennsylvania, registration fees, ballistic tests of each gun, and a questionnaire will have to be filled out establishing the need and the rules of safe gun handling, etc.

If you want to retain the privileges you now enjoy, which were granted in our Bill of Rights, then you should immediately make known your wishes to your senator, representatives and the House Law and Order Committee.

The theory of government registration of all privately owned weapons is a vicious one and the citizens of Pennsylvania have every right to ask whether those who propose such legislation are very stupid or whether they are very, very clever.

The utility of firearms registration as a curb on the criminal use of guns is well-known today to most progressive law enforcement officers. They do not even profess to believe that the criminal will register his guns. The valid reasons against any central listing of privately owned weapons are shouted over and over again in the pages of very recent history. The history of England, Italy, Norway, Denmark, Austria and others.

Because this bill is impractical, do not make the mistake of thinking that it cannot become law. Write, wire or phone the following persons today and tell them you would like to see House Bill No. 306 defeated: Senator Edward Watson, Representative Wilson Yeakel, Representative Marvin Keller, and Representative Ray L. Riley, chairman, House Law and Order Committee. Address all correspondence to the State Capitol in Harrisburg.

Two shoots . . . this Sunday, March 18, two local clubs have scheduled trapshooting events. The Bristol Fish & Game Protective Association will hold its regular March shoot over the club traps, west of Bath Road at Silver Lake, beginning at 1 o'clock. A featured Lewis class shoot will be run and also practice and doubles events are planned. Shots are available and all shooters are welcome.

The Newportville Rod & Gun Club will hold a white flyer and bluecock shoot over the club traps at Haunted Lane, Edgington. Shots are also available here and the matches are open to all shooters. Actual firing will get underway at 1 P. M.

Meeting . . . members and friends of the Edgely Rod & Gun Club are invited to a meeting of that organization, scheduled for next Monday evening in the meeting room of the Edgely Community Building at 8 o'clock.

Weapons used . . . hunters often wonder what percent of large game is brought down through the use of weapons other than rifles. A break-down of reports of deer and bears officially reported killed in Pennsylvania during the 1950 season provides some interesting information.

Of the 51,817 deer killed by hunters last year, 5811 were felled by pumpkins balls or killed slugs fired from shotguns, 5 were slain by bow hunters and one was taken through the use of a high caliber revolver.

Of the 351 legal bears reported slain in the same season, 15 were killed by the use of the shotgun, the remainder by the rifle.

Mutual Aid Wins Dart League Honors

The Mutual Aid Society won the Bristol Clubmen's Association Dart League regular season championship Wednesday evening by defeating the Loyal Order of Moose in a special post-season match to determine the winner as both teams had ended the regular season in a tie for first place.

The match was held on neutral grounds at the home of the Veterans of Foreign Wars. The match consisted of three games but Mutual Aid took the first two games to clinch the victory. Tony Angelo led the Wood streeters to a 263 to 192 victory in the first game as he threw a 50 game, and in the second game he teamed up with Luzi as each scored 52 points in this game to lead the team in a 228 to 188 victory. The Moose players were erratic in their playing as they dropped below 40 points per man on numerous occasions.

With the season officially ended the last three teams will engage in the championship playoffs. The first three teams this year were the Mutual Aid Society, Loyal Order of Moose, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars who finished in that order. Members of the teams who are eligible to participate in the playoffs are as follows: Mutual Aid Society, Schriber, Luzi, A. Caucel, J. Unruh, T. Angelo, Vannucci, J. Caucel, and Joe Chick; Loyal Order of Moose, Mount, Duffy, Litten, Grimes, Talley, Seaders, and Naylor; Veterans of Foreign Wars, F. Saxton, Flynn, Saks, Dennis, Dugan, North, and C. Saxton. These teams are not complete and new names may be added.

The playoffs will begin with the third place team, the Veterans of Foreign Wars, playing the 2nd place team, the Loyal Order of Moose, at the Moose home. The second match will be played at the "Vets" home and if another game is needed to complete the three series match it will be played on the neutral floor at the Mutual Aid Society. The winner of this series will then play the Mutual Aid Society for the championship in a 3 game match series. The playoffs will begin the week of March 19th.
